Contact MIR at 1-800-424-7289 or www.mircorp.com for our insurance rates and a complete description of policy terms, conditions and exclusions. We reserve the right to decline to accept a booking if adequate proof of such current and valid travel insurance (at our sole discretion) is not provided to us upon request.

Itinerary & Price Changes

Published itineraries and hotels for all tours are subject to change. Prices listed in this brochure are subject to change. We reserve the right to add a surcharge or to modify a tour if we are faced with significant increased costs including (but not limited to) changes in airfares, fuel surcharges and currency fluctuations, over which we have no control.

Rail Journeys by Private Train

Train Schedules & Flexibility – The trains used for these tours usually run on busy main lines, cover huge distances and operate to pre-agreed schedules. Occasionally, operational, mechanical or other reasons beyond the tour operator's control can cause delays resulting in rescheduling, reducing or cancelling parts of the cultural and sightseeing program in order to maintain the overall schedule. No refunds will be made if time constraints dictate that elements of the cultural/sightseeing program or route be reduced, altered or cancelled to maintain the overall schedule, or if any accommodation, sightseeing, meals or services are not utilized.

The international rail tour operators who operate the private trains featured in this brochure will make every effort to ensure that advertised features such as travel in specific carriages or on specific lines are provided. However, there can be occasions when, for reasons outside of the tour operator's control, the specific features cannot be provided. The tour operator will endeavor to provide alternative accommodations or routing as the circumstances allow; however, the tour operator and its agents at all times reserve the right to make substitutions for mechanical, operational or other unforeseen reasons.

Formations of some trains are not fixed, as the composition varies to suit the number of passengers on a given departure, and exact configuration(s) may not be determined until close to departure. A variety of cabin styles is in use aboard the various trains. Décor and layout of dining, bar and sleeping cars on your journey may differ from the sample images depicted in our brochures/websites.

Safety on Rail Tours – Railways are busy and potentially dangerous places. If you alight other than at scheduled stops at recognized stations, or visit any railway installation, whether included or not in the tour, you do so entirely at your own risk and are advised that your travel insurance MAY NOT cover you in case of mishap. Permission to travel on the locomotives, or on any other part of the train not normally accessible, may be given during the tour; however, you do this entirely at your own risk.

Accommodation Policies

If you prefer single accommodations, the single supplement fee/single occupancy rate is payable. Single accommodations are not always available as some nights may be spent in yurts/gers, tents, lodges, guesthouses, aboard regularly-scheduled rail service or in private homes and are subject to the availability of rooms and/or camping space. The (*) listed next to the single supplement price indicates partial single supplement availability on tours that employ non-hotel accommodation for some nights.

Double occupancy accommodations may have two twin beds or one double bed. We cannot guarantee requests for particular bed types as options are limited in most locations. On trains, cabin configurations differ by class of service and by train, with most cabins configured with upper/lower berths.

We are happy to attempt to make a same gender roommate match for solo travelers who request it. Should no one be available with whom you can share, you will be assessed the single supplement fee/single occupancy rate at the time of invoicing. In the event of a last-minute cancellation or roommate incompatibility resulting in assignment of a single room, the single supplement fee/single occupancy rate will be assessed.

Visas and Passports

A valid passport with six months validity from the end of the tour is required for participation. Travelers are responsible for obtaining all necessary visas prior to departure. MIR is not responsible for incorrect or improperly issued visa or passport documentation and cannot guarantee visa approval by foreign governments. MIR cannot assume responsibility for any costs associated with a traveler's refused visa issuance or refused entry into a country due to incorrect or incomplete documentation. It is the traveler's responsibility to check visas and passports for accuracy.

Air Reservations

MIR will gladly provide suggested airfare for you to join any of our programs. Please indicate your airfare needs on the reservation form. Please note that airfares, taxes and fuel surcharges are not guaranteed until purchased and ticketed. Should you decide to make your own arrangements, including mileage-based reservations, please supply MIR with a copy of your air itinerary showing arrival and departure flights and times by 60 days prior to departure.
