THE BALTICS

Lithuania ■ Latvia ■ Estonia

Trakai Castle, Lithuania

The Baltic countries of Lithuania, Latvia and Estonia, clustered along the eastern shore of the Baltic Sea in northern Europe, stepped out from the shadow of the Soviet Union in the late 20th century. Lithuania was first to declare independence, in 1990, and the others soon followed. Since then, these beautiful pastoral countries have become thriving members of the European Union. The Old Towns of each of their capitals – Tallinn, Riga and Vilnius – are UNESCO World Heritage Sites, with cobbled streets, handsome medieval churches and a wealth of fascinating and variegated cultural heritage.
