Itinerary

Day One, Thursday, September 24

Arrive Yerevan, Armenia

Passengers are met and transferred to the centrally located hotel. Meet fellow passengers at a welcome reception and dinner this evening.

Meals: D – Marriott Yerevan or similar

Day Two, Friday, September 25

Yerevan • board the Golden Eagle Private Train

The capital city of Armenia is older even than Rome.

Yerevan was founded under the name Erebuni in 782 BC. Christianity has been crucial to the development of a sense of identity and pride in Armenia. In 310 AD, Armenia's King Trdates III converted to the new creed and adopted it as the state religion, making Armenia the first Christian country. Since that time, Armenia has been firmly Christian, a fact which has greatly affected its history.

The city center today includes a wide range of architectural styles as a result of the fusion of Armenian and Russian design. The layout of the city features a large central square with broad avenues radiating from it, and a ring of parkland. Mountains surround the city, including the snow-covered peaks of Ararat to the south and the four peaks of Mount Aragats to the northwest.

Begin touring by driving outside the city to admire Geghard Monastery. Carved into the side of a mountain, UNESCO-listed Geghard Monastery is one of the most fascinating monuments in Armenia. Beside the river at the foot of the rock, the church dates from 1215. It provides access to another building that has a roof formed by stalactites. The convent is in a cave adjoining this building; the only way in is through a narrow opening in the roof.

Visit the Temple of Garni, which stands on a cliff near the Azat River valley. With walls of huge basalt blocks, the temple was once the summer palace of King Trdat I, who built it in the first century AD. Destroyed by an earthquake in 1679, the monument has been restored by Armenian architects in recent years, and skilled work continues on the third century royal baths and their striking mosaics.

Back in Yerevan, visit the Cascade, a massive white staircase with waterfalls set into a downtown Yerevan hillside. The Cascade is becoming a meeting place and icon of the city. Located within the Cascade, the exciting Cafesjian Museum of Modern Art is built on the extensive collection of Gerard Cafesjian. It focuses on sculpture, glass and paintings from contemporary artists.

This evening, board the luxury Golden Eagle private train for overnight. The train departs the station late tonight, or in the early hours of Day Three.

Meals: B, L, D – Aboard the Golden Eagle private train

Day Three, Saturday, September 26

Lake Sevan • Dilijan

Today the train takes the scenic route around Lake Sevan. Blue-green Lake Sevan, at over 6,200 feet, is one of the largest alpine lakes in the world. Filling two inter-mountain depressions, the brilliant lake is a favorite resort for citizens of Yerevan, about 45 miles away. In 1930, a Soviet plan to use lake water for hydroelectricity and irrigation caused the water level to sink rapidly, and beaches and resorts to appear on the new lake shore.

Continue to the small mountain resort of Dilijan and transfer to a coach for the rest of today's touring. Set in Dilijan National Park in the northern Armenian province of Tavush, Dilijan is renowned as a place frequented by artists, composer and filmmakers. Its cobbled Sharambeyan Street has been refurbished and preserved as an example of early Dilijan, lined with craftsmen's workshops, typical stone houses, a gallery and a historical museum.

Enjoy an Armenian cognac reception and lunch at Avan Dzoraget Hotel on the Debed River. Return to the train this evening for dinner and overnight.

Meals: B, L, D – Aboard the Golden Eagle private train

Day Four, Sunday September 27

Tbilisi, Georgia

Wake up in Georgia's capital, Tbilisi, today. Georgia's strip of central lowlands has long been an important link between East and West. Tbilisi is set at the mouth of this passageway, in the Mtkvari River valley, and has changed hands many times. Most notably, the city was ruled by the Arabs for 400 years before King David the Builder defeated them in 1121 and moved his capital here from Kutaisi. The Georgian king fostered tolerance for Tbilisi's Arab population, and the city still has a multiethnic atmosphere.

The red-roofed Old Town, its houses sporting carved wooden balconies, sits beneath the Narikala Fortress on the hill above. Tbilisi was last razed in 1795 by Aga Khan, and most of the current buildings date from that time. The domed sulfur baths and the stone Anchiskhati Church were all that survived from earlier times.

The Tbilisi touring includes views of the Narikala Fortress, the 4th century citadel built to keep watch over the narrowest point on the Kura River. The hike to the fortress may be undertaken if time permits, but if not, the view from Metekhi Church of the Virgin is perfect. Also visible from many vantage points within today's tour is Mother Georgia, a soaring monument above the city bearing a sword for her enemies and a bowl of wine for her guests.

Visit the 6th century stone Anchiskhati Basilica, the city's oldest church. Pause at Sioni Cathedral, sheltering the Cross of St. Nino, the woman who brought Christianity to Georgia, and pass by the 19th century caravanserai built to house traveling merchants. Tour the 13th century Metekhi Church of the Virgin, constructed on an outcropping above the river on the site of David the Builder's former palace. Wander Rustaveli Avenue, the main street of Tbilisi. Notice the numerous elaborately carved wooden balconies attached to the houses in the Old Town, a feature of the city's architectural landscape that often appears in paintings.

Tour the former National Museum, now called the Simon Janashia Museum, whose mission statement is to preserve Georgian heritage; much of what can be seen here is important to humanity at large as well as to Georgia. Visitors can see one of the largest collections of ancient gold decorative arts as well as very well preserved medieval cloisonné. The most famous exhibit here, though, is the 1.7 million year old hominid skulls found in Dmanisi, Georgia.

Return to the train for overnight (train remains at the Central Station overnight).

Meals: B, L, D – Aboard the Golden Eagle private train

Day Five, Monday, September 28

Tbilisi • Telavi

Board a coach this morning and continue the exploration of Georgia in Kakheti, Georgia's wine country. Georgians were originally sun worshippers and believed that the sun's chosen plant was the grape vine. St. Nino, who brought Christianity to Georgia, was said to have made a cross of grape vines and bound it together with her hair, symbolizing the sun's rays. The winding characters of the Georgian alphabet resemble the trailing growth of the vine, and this motif is found in Georgian architecture throughout the country. The Kakheti region is the most important wine-growing area of the country.

Telavi, a town of some 20,000, is the administrative and cultural center of Kakheti. The town has been in existence from at least the 1st century, when it was a stop on one of the trade routes from the Middle East to Europe.

Discover the nearby village of Tsinandali, best known for the family estate of Alexander Chavchavadze, located near here. A 19th century Georgian aristocrat and poet, Chavchavadze managed to serve admirably in the Imperial Russian army during the times he wasn't fighting Russia for Georgian independence. His estate was a center of the intellectual life of the time. Here he and his father founded the first and foremost winery in the country, which still produces the dry white Tsinindali wine. His mansion has been transformed into a museum in honor of the poet and hero.

Return to the train for overnight (arrival in Gori will be late tonight or early morning on Day Six, and train will remain stationary on arrival).

Meals: B, L, D – Aboard the Golden Eagle private train

Day Six, Tuesday, September 29

Gori • Uplistsikhe • Mtskheta

Awaken in Gori today, where you transfer to the coach for touring. Once the stronghold of Georgian kings, Gori is now better known for its connection with Stalin, who was born here in December 1879 and lived here until 1883. Stalin's father was a local shoemaker named Vissarion Dzhugashvili. Their original wooden hut, located on Stalin Prospekt, is today the Stalin House Museum. Also on the grounds of the museum is Stalin's private railway car in which he traveled throughout the Soviet Union.

Stop at the nearby cave town of Uplistsikhe (Lord's Castle), which was once one of the most important stops along the trade route that linked Byzantium with India and China. Bordered by the Mtkvari River and spanning 22 acres of mountainside, Uplistsikhe was an entire town carved into the soft stone of the mountainside. The ultimate decline of the city can be attributed to the Mongol invasions of the 13th century, but the remains are still a fascinating site to visit. Here, enjoy a private concert of traditional Georgian polyphonic vocal music.

Return to Gori to board the train, and ride to UNESCO-listed Mtskheta, the capital of the eastern Georgian kingdom of Iberia from the 3rd century BC until the 5th century AD. Because of its location on the rivers, it was an important market town. As the center of the Iberian civilization, Mtskheta was also significant spiritually and culturally. Georgia's conversion to Christianity took place here in 337 AD. The Orthodox churches built during this period – Svetitskhoveli Cathedral, its interior decorated in murals, and Jvari, one of the first Christian churches in Georgia – are considered among the finest. After touring here, return to Tbilisi by coach and re-board the train for the overnight ride to Baku.

Day Seven, Wednesday, September 30

Baku, Azerbaijan

Today the train pulls into Baku, Azerbaijan's capital. Parts of Azerbaijan, notably Gobustan, below Baku on the Caspian coast, show evidence of human habitation beginning in the Stone Age. Flaming natural gas vents on the Absheron Peninsula, where Baku is now located, may have inspired Zarathustra, a local resident around 1000 BC, to include fire rituals in his Zoroastrian religion. Baku was first mentioned in the 9th century, when its people were reported to burn oil that came from the ground in their lamps.

Baku's inhabitants stayed behind the 14th century walls of their town almost until the 19th century, when the Russian empire began exploiting in earnest the great oil reserves under the waters of the Caspian. An oil boom that lasted from 1880 to 1915 left a region of Beaux Arts mansions built by the newly-rich.

Baku's UNESCO-listed Old Town, or Icheri Sheher, was once the whole city, and is the best place to picture its history. It is completely encircled by the old city walls with their medieval gates. The winding streets and alleyways are home to private residences, mosques and madrassahs, carpet merchants and tiny shops. The aura of the past that permeates the town rewards exploration and careful investigation with surprising glimpses of a bygone era.

Check into a leading hotel for a two-night stay while the train is loaded onto the Caspian Sea ferry for the crossing to Central Asia.

Meals: B, L, D – Baku Hilton or similar

Day Eight, Thursday, October 1

Baku

This morning head down onto the Absheron Peninsula to explore Gobustan, an important site of ancient petroglyphs, added to the UNESCO World Heritage list in 2007. Quarry workers discovered the rock carvings here by accident in the 1930s. Since then, the carvings depicting men, women, animals and artifacts have been the focus of much study and speculation. The record left by these ancient people attests to a far vaster Caspian Sea, and gives insight into details of daily life such as hunting and recreation, culture and economy. An excellent modern museum adds to the experience. Enjoy lunch overlooking the Caspian Sea and return to the city in the afternoon.

Enjoy free time this afternoon, before dinner at a traditional local restaurant and overnight at the hotel. Meanwhile on Days Seven and Eight, the Golden Eagle train will be making its way across the Caspian to Turkmenistan's capital, Ashgabat. It is possible for adventurous travelers to ride aboard the train ferry, with its limited passenger facilities, and basic cabins and catering. Please inquire for costs and details, as this option has to be selected at the time of booking.

Meals: B, L, D – Baku Hilton or similar

Day Nine, Friday, October 2

Baku • fly to Ashgabat, Turkmenistan

This morning after breakfast, depart for the Baku airport and catch a flight to Ashgabat, Turkmenistan's capital. This morning, set out on a city tour of Ashgabat. In spite of its location on a trade route, Ashgabat never achieved the status and influence of other Silk Road cities like Khiva or Bukhara. In 1881 the Russians built a fortress on the site as a buffer against English-dominated Persia, and by the early 20th century Ashgabat was a prosperous and flourishing city. In 1948 a massive earthquake leveled the city, killing over two-thirds of the population. Recently Ashgabat has seen a boom in new construction, which has had a major impact on the look of the city. New marble and gold monuments have sprung up all over town. In fact, in 2013, the Guinness Book of World Records awarded Ashgabat the record for the highest density of white marble buildings in the world.

The National Museum of Turkmenistan, with its grand approach and panoramic views, introduces modern Turkmenistan on the ground floor and ancient history in the galleries above. The historical exhibits begin with artifacts ranging from stone-age tools to carved ivory drinking horns used for Zoroastrian rituals and special occasions (called rhytons), and move through time, telling the story of Turkmenistan through the ages. Other galleries display beautiful ceramics, coins, amulets, and gold and silver artifacts. The museum also features a fantastic selection of Turkmen carpets located on the ground floor.

Touring also includes Kipchak Mosque. The huge $100-million-dollar mosque in former Turkmen President Niyazov's hometown of Kipchak was inaugurated in 2004. The mosque is big enough to hold 10,000 people, and its 164-foot golden dome had to be lowered in place by helicopter. Verses from Niyazov's own spiritual book, the Ruhnama, are etched on the walls alongside Koranic verses. Niyazov was buried here in the family mausoleum that he built, along with the mosque, with government funds.

Please note, today's schedule will be heavily dependent on flight times from Baku to Ashgabat, and there may be the opportunity for additional touring in either city, or time left free for independent exploration. In all cases, spend the night in a luxury Ashgabat hotel before beginning the official touring tomorrow. Meals: B, L, D – Oguzkent or similar

Day Ten, Saturday, October 3

Onboard • Darvaza Gas
Crater

Depart Ashgabat today and re-board the train, setting off towards the Uzbek border. Take the opportunity this evening to leave the train for a nighttime excursion to the Darvaza Gas Crater. Darvaza is a tiny town of about 350 semi-nomadic Teke tribal people just outside the “Door to Hell,” one of Turkmenistan's most unusual sights. Located about 160 miles north of Ashgabat in the Kara Kum Desert, Darvaza was a site of natural gas exploration in the 1970s. The story goes that the drilling equipment was swallowed up by a huge sinkhole filled with gas. Engineers decided to burn off the gas to make the cavern safe for more drilling. It has been burning ever since, and blazes with an incredible strength that's visible from miles away. Re-board the train for overnight.

Meals: B, L, D – Aboard the Golden Eagle private train

Day Eleven, Sunday, October 4
Khiva, Uzbekistan

Make a stop today in Khiva. Legend says that the ancient Silk Road oasis of Khiva was founded at the place where Shem, son of Noah, discovered water in the desert, and that the city got its name from Shem's joyful shout, “Hey va!” at the discovery. Today the living city is part museum town, part re-creation of life hundreds of years ago.

A walking tour in Khiva includes the monuments of the UNESCO-listed Old Town, or Ichon Qala, including the Tash-Hauli Palace, or Stone House, built in the 19th century for the reigning khan and his four wives; the Dzhuma Mosque with its interior forest of carved wooden pillars; and the Kunya Ark, the original residence of the khans, partially destroyed in the Persian invasion of the 18th century.

Meals: B, L, D – Aboard the Golden Eagle private train

Day Twelve, Monday, October 5

Bukhara

Uzbekistan's best-preserved oasis city, Bukhara, is next. UNESCO-listed Bukhara offers cool shade and rest to the modern traveler as it did to the camel caravans that plied the Silk Road hundreds of years ago. The Old Town in Bukhara has a unified feel, drawn together by a central reflecting pool and plaza, by commonality in the structure of the domed bazaars and by the major monuments ringing the old town. Explore the 2,000-year-old Ark Citadel and the emir's Palace of the Moon and Stars.

Meals: B, L, D – Aboard the Golden Eagle private train

Day Thirteen, Tuesday, October 6

Samarkand

Today the train arrives in Samarkand, Tamerlane's blue-tiled capital. Perhaps the best-known of Silk Road towns, Samarkand, fabled oasis on the fringes of the Kyzyl Kum Desert, has been settled since the 6th century BC.

UNESCO calls Samarkand the “Crossroad of Cultures.” It has been visited through time by many of the world's conquerors – Alexander the Great, Genghis Khan and Tamerlane. Tamerlane made it his capital city and gathered the finest architects, builders and artisans of the time to enhance its beauty. Admire gracious Registan Square, Bibi Khanum Mosque and Ulug Bek Observatory.

Meals: B, L, D – Aboard the Golden Eagle private train

Day Fourteen, Wednesday, October 7

Tashkent

Arrive in Tashkent, the capital of Uzbekistan, and spend the morning touring this pleasant Soviet-style city rebuilt with wide tree-lined boulevards after a devastating earthquake in 1966. After seeing the highlights, re-join the train as it departs for Kazakhstan.

Meals: B, L, D – Aboard the Golden Eagle private train

Day Fifteen, Thursday, October 8

Almaty, Kazakhstan

Today the train approaches Kazakhstan's "City of Apples," Almaty, set in the green foothills of the majestic Tien Shan Mountains. The commercial capital of Central Asia's wealthiest country, Almaty may be the most rapidly growing and modernizing city in the region. Enjoy lunch here in a traditional Kazakh yurt. Transfer to one of Almaty's leading hotels for your final night. Gather one last time for a farewell dinner to toast the journey.

Meals: B, L, D – Intercontinental Almaty or similar

Day Sixteen, Friday, October 9

Depart Almaty

After breakfast the journey ends with transfers to the airport for international flight departures.

Rail Journey by Private Train

Private Train tours are in a class of their own, offering the opportunity to experience remote destinations in unparalleled style. These all-inclusive, overview tours aboard the fully-chartered Golden Eagle luxury private train bring together passengers from around the world. Group sizes are flexible and can be more than 100 passengers.

Important Notes: Is This Trip Right For You?

- This trip is moderately active, and rated moderate to rigorous touring due to the daily walking involved and the overall shortcomings of the tourism infrastructure. To reap the full rewards of this adventure, travelers must be able to walk at least a mile a day, keeping up with fellow travelers.

Flexibility, a sense of humor and a willingness to accept local standards of amenities and services are essential components to the enjoyment of this trip.

- This itinerary features a significant amount of touring on foot. Many streets and sidewalks are uneven, and some attractions are only accessible via steep staircases. Museums generally do not have elevators.
- On the train, restaurant and bar cars may be some distance from your sleeping car. Although portage is provided where possible, you may have to carry your baggage for short distances.
- Passengers may encounter problems getting on and off trains; there may be low platforms, steep steps and/or gaps between the platform and the train.
- In true expedition style, some delays or changes in the itinerary are likely.

MINIMUM PASSENGER REQUIREMENTS All Golden Eagle rail tours require a minimum number of passengers to operate. Should this not be reached, Golden Eagle will run a modified service of carriages attached to regular service trains to accommodate a smaller group or offer an alternative tour. If no alternative is suitable a full refund of land payments made (exclusive of payments made for air tickets, visa fees or other expenses) will be offered. Reduced numbers mean smaller and more intimate groups, and a shorter train, as unfilled cars are left behind. On a number of tours Russian Railways will be combining Golden Eagle carriages with regular trains departing at similar times. The on-board experience and off-train tours will be unaffected and, as there will be no connection with the regular trains, the Golden Eagle carriages will remain totally private and you will not notice any difference to the quality, comfort and enjoyment of your trip.

Important Notice Regarding Prescription Drugs

Please be advised that some countries in Central Asia, most notably Turkmenistan, but also Uzbekistan, have recently stepped up their border/customs inspection and enforcement activities for arriving and departing travelers concerning pharmaceutical drugs. Individual baggage searches are very rare for travelers visiting via private train, but are certainly a possibility. If you need to carry prescription medications with you of any kind, you are reminded to carry an amount suitable for personal use only, in original labeled packing and with a copy of the prescription. Package labelling or prescription paperwork should clearly indicate your name, the drug name, dosage, and doctor's name.

Please note that some prescription drugs, including certain pain relievers such as Tramadol and Hydrocodone, which are somewhat common in the U.S., are completely prohibited from entry into Turkmenistan, even for personal use with a foreign prescription. Another prohibited medication in Turkmenistan is pseudoephedrine. Please be sure to bring alternative medication with you as these drugs (among others – call for details) are simply not allowed at the present time.

If you have concerns about bringing your prescription drugs through Central Asia, please contact your Tour Specialist before your departure for more information.

Weather

The South Caucasus countries experience extremely hot summers and cold winters. Late spring and early fall are the best months to travel here. The spring provides a look at the wildflowers, while the fall brings spectacular colors as the leaves change. Rain is minimal. October brings temperatures ranging from 60-95 degrees Fahrenheit. Azerbaijan is the warmest place on the program.

Central Asia experiences hot summers and cold winters. The best times to travel to these countries are in spring and fall, to catch the best temperatures between the hot parts of the summer and the cold winters. Rain is minimal. April-May brings temperatures ranging from 60 to 80 degrees Fahrenheit, while late August-September temperatures are typically 75-95+. Those whose plans don't allow travel in April-May or August-September can still catch great opportunities to visit as early as March, or as late as November. At these times, comfortable touring weather is still called for, with warm days and cooler nights/early mornings. Travelers to Central Asia in March and November might want to bring along some additional warmer layers to help adjust to the difference between mountainous areas and desert areas.

International Airfare

MIR's in-house, full-service air department is available to assist with your air travel needs. Check with MIR before booking air on your own, as we are happy to research and compare the best published fares available. Airfare varies depending on a wide variety of factors, such as dates of travel, seat availability, special airline promotions, how restrictive ticket changes are, how long the fares can be held without purchase, routing considerations such as stopovers, and more. Tour dates are based on the land tour only. Our preferred carrier for this program is Turkish Air, as they offer the most competitive fares.

Please call us at 800-424-7289 to discuss air options and routings for this program, and to request a quote for your specific plans and dates of travel. We will be happy to put together a no-obligation suggested air itinerary and estimate for you at your request.

Visas

U.S. passport holders require three visas for this tour: a single-entry Azeri visa, a single-entry Turkmen visa, and a single-entry Uzbek visa. You may also need a visa for any country you fly through to join the tour (such as Russia or Turkey) or a Georgian or Armenian visa if you are a non-U.S. passport holder.

An estimate of current visa costs for U.S. passport holders, based on standard processing time, is $388. The Azeri visa is processed by MIR on our clients' behalf. The other visas are processed through MIR's preferred provider. Your exact visa fees may differ as visa costs can depend on a number of factors, such as state of residence, processing time, and return shipping. Visa fees are always subject to change.

MIR will apply for the Azeri e-visa on your behalf, but we will need you to send us a color scan of a passport photo in order to start the process. The cost of the Azerbaijan e-visa will be added to your tour invoice. The estimated cost is $35 per person.

Extensive pre-tour paperwork is necessary to apply for these visas, which in some cases requires a foreign government approval authorization to be issued prior to submission of your application materials to the Embassies/Consulates. A valid passport with six months validity from the end of the tour is also required.

In the past some travelers have made their own visa arrangements instead of using MIR's preferred provider for their visa processing; either using their own visas service or attempting to process directly with the embassies/consulates. We strongly recommend you discuss it with us before choosing an alternate visa processing method, to help avoid difficulties and visa problems. In the event that you plan to process visas without going through MIR's preferred provider, please contact us first so we can pass you detailed instructions with critical trip-specific information.

Pre- and Post-Tour Extensions

MIR can arrange for an extended program in St. Petersburg, Moscow, Mongolia or China before or after your tour. Suggested extensions include:

St. Petersburg Pre-Tour

St. Petersburg is often described as one of the most beautiful cities in the world. Its miles of canals, laced together with graceful bridges set amidst 18th century buildings, have earned it the name "Venice of the North." Conceived of by Peter the Great and designed by his favorite European architects, St. Petersburg was meant to be Peter's link to the western world. Capital of Russia from 1712 until just after the revolution, the city celebrated its 300th anniversary in 2003. Explore the fabulous museums and palaces, including the Hermitage Museum, the Russian Museum, Usupoff Palace and the grand estates of czars Peter and Catherine.
